

Simone Cuomo

Simone Cuomo is the Secretary-General of the CCBE since August 2020. He joined the CCBE in 2010 as Senior Legal Advisor managing a range of CCBE committees in areas of data protection as well as cross-border judicial cooperation in civil and criminal matters. Besides policy advocacy towards the EU institutions, he also managed the CCBE's activities with the Council of Europe's European Commission for the Efficiency of Justice of the (CEPEJ) where he contributed to various papers and working groups. For many years he has been closely involved in EU policy developments as regards the digitalisation of justice, with a main focus on translating lawyers' needs in electronic judicial proceedings, as well as procedural safeguards and the impact of novel technologies on the legal profession.

Before joining the CCBE in 2010, Simone Cuomo worked for more than six years in the field of EU legal affairs for both private and public entities. He holds a Master of Laws degree (LLM) from the University of Maastricht with a specialisation in European and Comparative Law, and a Master's degree in International Politics (cum laude) from the Centre Européen de Recherches Internationales et Stratégiques, Université de Paris XI. Languages: Dutch (native), English, Italian, French, and German.
