(On 31 March 2017 article 3 paragraph (2) from the Chapter I supplemented by article I, point 2 from the Law no.25/2017)

Article 4
In the practice of his/her profession and in connection with it, the lawyer shall be protected by the law.

Article 5
(1) The forms of practicing the lawyer’s profession are: individual law offices, associated law offices, professional companies, or professional companies with limited liability.

(2) A qualified lawyer may practice his/her profession within the individual law office, alone or together with other collaborating lawyers.

(3) The individual law offices may associate for the purpose of jointly practicing the profession; the rights and obligations of lawyers, owners of associated law offices shall remain personal and may not be transferred. Accordingly, individual law offices may also associate with private partnerships.

(4) The individual law offices may group in order to create technical-economical facilities for the practice of the lawyer’s profession and shall preserve their individuality in their relationships with the clients.

(5) A professional company shall be established by two or more qualified lawyers. Collaborating or remunerated lawyers may also practice their profession in a professional company. The professional company and the lawyers practicing within it may not provide legal assistance to persons having conflicting interests.

(6) The grouped law offices, the associated law offices, the professional companies and the professional companies with limited liability may also have a joint property.

(7) The lawyer may change the form of practicing the profession at any time, provided he/she notifies the bar to which he/she is registered.
(8) The lawyer may not practice his/her profession in several forms of practicing, at the same time.
(9) The forms of practicing the profession may only be alienated by means of inter vivos agreements, only between qualified lawyers and currently in the practice of their profession, or may be liquidated on termination of the capacity, with the observance of the regime of the investments regulated by the present law.
(10) When establishing the forms of practicing the profession, the lawyers have the right to establish the assets dedicated to the practice of the profession, under the law, in compliance with the regulated procedure for the establishment of the electronic Registry for the record of the dedicated assets of the lawyers, according to the conditions set forth by the Council of UNBR through the Rules for the organization and functioning. The registration with the registry is legally binding against third parties, under the law.

Article 6

(1) The professional company with limited liability is the company holding legal personality, established under this law and the by-law of the lawyer’s profession, by means of the association of at least 2 qualified lawyers, currently practicing their profession, regardless of them belonging to another form of practicing the profession.

(2) The legal personality is acquired by the professional company with limited liability on the date of registration with the bar of the decision issued by the Council of the bar in which territorial area its main office is located.

(3) The professional company with limited liability holds its own assets.

(4) The duties and the responsibilities of the professional company with limited liability are guaranteed with its own assets. The associates are personally liable only within the limit of each of their capital contribution.

(5) Where a professional company with limited liability is established by lawyers who are part of other forms of practicing the profession, the latter may not be subject to liquidation, if the associates so agree.

(6) The form of practicing the profession from which the associate comes, if any, ceases its professional activity carried on in own name, during the period in which the qualified lawyer owning it or, as appropriate, the lawyers owning it have the status of associate in the professional company with limited liability. During the period in which the form of practicing the profession ceases to exist for this reason, the situation regarding the cessation of activity shall be duly mentioned with the Table of Lawyers, under the conditions stipulated in the by-laws of the lawyer’s profession.

(7) In the case of professional services consisting of legal assistance and representation in front of the courts, prosecutors' offices, criminal investigation bodies or other authorities, the professional company with limited liability has the obligation to mention in the contract concluded with the client the name of the lawyers(s) chosen or accepted by the client to provide the professional service as well as if right of substitution is granted or, as the case may be, not granted.

(8) The professional company with limited liability carries out simple bookkeeping and is subject to the tax transparency regime. The payment of income tax is made by each associate for his own income.

Article 7
Any lawyer, irrespective of the form of practicing the profession, may conclude collaboration conventions with experts or other specialists, under the terms of the law. The professional companies and the professional company with limited liability may conclude such conventions only with the consent of all partners.

Article 8
(1) The forms of practicing the lawyer’s profession and the grouped law offices shall be individualised by denomination, as follows:
   a) for the individual law office – the name of the lawyer owning the law office, followed by the phrase law office;
   b) for the associated law offices – the names of all owners, followed by the phrase associated law offices;
   c) for the professional companies and the professional company with limited liability – the name of at least one partner, followed by the phrase professional company or, as applicable, professional company with limited liability;
   d) for the grouped law office – the name of each law office owner, followed by the phrase grouped law offices.
(2) The denomination of the form of practicing the profession, individualised according to paragraph (1), may also be kept after the death or departure of one of the associates/partners, with the latter’s consent or, as applicable, with the consent of the heir of the deceased, expressed in authentic form.
(3) The denominations stipulated under paragraph (1) shall appear on the signs of such law offices or companies, under the terms stipulated by the by-law of the profession.
(4) For all forms of practicing the profession by foreign lawyers, one may use the denomination and the name of the form of practicing the profession used in Romania or abroad, under the terms of the current article.

Article 9
(1) The conventions for grouping or association of law office, the deeds of incorporation of the professional companies and the professional companies with limited liability, as well as the conventions stipulated under article 7, shall be concluded in writing, with the compliance of the substantive requirements stipulated by the law and the by-law of the profession.
(2) The Council of the bar having been notified shall check the compliance with the law and, when this is the case, shall order the registration of the convention within one month since the application was submitted.
(3) Any person who believes he/she is harmed as far as a legitimate right or interest of his/hers is concerned may file a complaint against the decision of the Council of the bar with the professional jurisdiction bodies, under the terms of the present law and the by-law of the profession.
(4) The bars shall keep separate records of lawyers for each form of practicing the profession.
Article 10
(1) The bars and U.N.B.R. shall ensure the qualified exercise of the right to defence, the professional competence and discipline, the protection of the dignity and honour of the member lawyers.
(2) Only one bar, member of the U.N.B.R., shall exist in each county, having its headquarters in the capital of that county.
(3) Each bar shall organise and ensure the functioning of a judicial assistance service attached to each district court. The Council of the bar shall be responsible for the organisation and functioning of that service.

Article 11
The lawyer shall have the obligation to keep the professional secrecy regarding any aspect of the cause entrusted to him/her, unless the law expressly stipulates otherwise.

CHAPTER III: The rights and duties of the lawyer
SECTION 1: The rights of the lawyers

Article 29
(1) A lawyer appearing on the bar’s table shall be entitled to assist and represent any natural or legal entity, based on a contract concluded in a written form, which acquires a certified date after being recorded in the official register of evidence.
(2) A lawyer as well as his/her client shall be entitled to renounce the legal assistance contract or to amend it based on mutual consent, under the terms stipulated by the by-law of the profession. The client’s unilateral renunciation shall not constitute a cause for exemption for the payment of the due fee for the law services provided, as well as for covering the expenses incurred by the lawyer in the interest of the client’s procedural interest.

Article 30
(1) The lawyer has the right to elect and to be elected in the governing bodies of the profession, under the conditions provided by the present law and the by-law.
2) The lawyers with outstanding debts and fees established for setting up the budget of UNBR and the Bar, as well as the funds of the Romanian Lawyers’ Insurance House and its subsidiaries, may not be part of the professional bodies of the profession.
(on 31 March 2017, Article 30 of Chapter III, Section 1, supplemented by Article I, point 12 of the Law 25/2017)

Art. 31
(1) For his/her professional activity, a lawyer shall be entitled to a fee and to all the expenses incurred in the interest of his/her client’s procedural interest being covered.
(1) The activity carried out by a lawyer under the law and the by-law of the lawyer's profession, regardless of the form and manner of practicing the profession, generating professional income, cannot be reconsidered as a dependent activity according to the provisions of the Fiscal Code.
(12) The lawyers may agree with their clients for higher retainers than those set out in the table of minimal retainers adopted by the UNBR Council.
(on 31 May-2017 Article 31 (1) of Chapter III, Section 1, supplemented by Article I, point 13 of Law 25/2017)
(2) For this purpose, a lawyer may open a bank account to cash in the fees and another one for depositing the amounts received from the client for procedural expenses in the latter’s interest. The way of managing the amounts that have been handed over to the lawyer by the client, for procedural expenses in his/her interests, shall be set out in the convention between the lawyer and the client, under the terms stipulated by the by-law of the profession.

(3) The legally concluded legal assistance contract is enforceable. The civil court having jurisdiction over the lawyer’s professional head office shall have competence for vesting the legal assistance contract with an executory formula. The overdue fees and other expenses incurred by the lawyer in the procedural interest of his/her client shall be recovered according to the provisions of the by-law of the profession.

Art. 32
Contests and complaints against the lawyer’s retainer shall be solved by the dean of the bar. The dean’s decision may be appealed with the Council of the bar, whose decision is final.

Article 33
(1) Lawyers shall have their own social security system.
(2) The social security system of lawyers is regulated by the law, and is based on their contributions, as well as on other sources stipulated by the law or the by-law of the Lawyers’ Insurance House.
(3) The time served as a lawyer shall be considered seniority.
(4) The lawyer has the right to recover his/her work capacity, under the conditions stipulated in the by-law of the lawyer's profession.

Article 34
The period in which the lawyer performed the functions of judge, prosecutor, notary, he has been appointed as legal expert within the Parliament, the Presidential Administration, the Government, the Constitutional Court, the Ombudsman, the Court of Accounts and the Legislative Council, as well as the period during which he was suspended from the profession in order to exercise a public dignity function or a function assimilated to the public dignity function shall be considered seniority within the lawyer’s profession.

Art. 35
(1) In order to ensure the professional secrecy, the professional documents and paperwork that are in the lawyer’s custody or in his/her law office shall be inviolable. The search of a lawyer, of his/her residence or law office, or the seizure of records and goods may only be made by a public prosecutor, based on a warrant issued under the terms of the law.

(1) The following are exempted from the measure of evidence seizing and the measure of confiscation:

a) documents containing communications between a lawyer and his client;
b) documents containing records made by a lawyer on matters relating to the defence a client.

(on 31 of March 2017 Article 35 paragraph (1) of Chapter III, Section 1, supplemented by Article I, point 14 of Law 25/2017)
(2) The lawyer's phone calls shall not be heard and recorded by any technical means, nor shall his professional correspondence be intercepted and recorded, except under the conditions and by the procedure provided by the law.

3. The relationship between a lawyer and the person he/she assists or represents may not be subject to technical supervision unless there is evidence that the lawyer himself is or is preparing to commit one of the offenses referred to in article 139 paragraph (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. If during or after the execution of the measure it results that the technical supervision activities also covered the relationship between the lawyer and the suspect or defendant he defends, the evidence obtained cannot be used in any criminal proceedings and will be immediately destroyed by the prosecutor. The judge who ordered the measure is immediately informed by the prosecutor. The judge shall order the lawyer to be informed.

(31 May 2017 Article 35 (2) of Chapter III, Section 1, supplemented by Article I, point 15 of Law 25/2017)

Article 36

(1) The contact between a lawyer and his client cannot be hindered or controlled, directly or indirectly, by any state body.
(2) Where the client is in arrest or detention, the administration of the place of arrest or detention shall take the necessary measures to respect the rights provided in paragraph (1).

Article 37

The lawyer practicing in the individual law offices, the associated law offices, the professional companies and the professional companies with limited liability have the right to own a professional headquarter in the constituency of the bar where they are registered and to secondary offices in another bar in the country or abroad where they are registered.

Article 38

The Ministry of Justice is obligated to provide the necessary premises within the courts' headquarters for the activity of lawyers.

(on 14 February 2011 Art. 39, paragraph (8) of Chapter III, Section 1, abrogated by Art. 1 of the Emergency Ordinance 10/2011)

Article 39

(1) While practicing their profession, the lawyers are indispensable partners of justice, protected by law, without being assimilated to civil servants, unless they attest to the identity of the parties, the content or the date of an act.
(2) The lawyer is obligated to respect the solemnity of the court hearing, not to use words or expressions likely to prejudice the dignity of the judge, prosecutor, other lawyers, parties or their representatives in the trial.
(3) The lawyer shall not be criminally liable for the oral or written claims, in the appropriate form and in compliance with the provisions of paragraph (2) before the courts, the criminal investigations bodies or other administrative bodies of jurisdiction, neither if those claims are in connection to consultations provided to litigants or to defences formulated in the respective case or for the assertions made during verbal consultations or written consultations given to the clients, if they are performed one in compliance with the professional deontology rules.

(4) The non-observance by the lawyer of the provisions of paragraph (2) and (3) constitutes serious disciplinary offense. The disciplinary liability does not exclude the criminal or civil liability.

(5) The legal opinions of the lawyer, the exercise of rights, the fulfilment of the obligations provided by law and the use of legal means for the effective preparation and realization of the defense of the freedoms, rights and legitimate interests of his/her clients do not represent a disciplinary infringement nor do they entail other legal liability forms attributable to the lawyer.

(on 31-Mar-2017, Article 39 of Chapter III, Section 1 as amended by Article I, paragraph 16 of Law 25/2017)

SECTION 2: Attorney’s duties

Article 40
(1) The lawyer shall be obligated to thoroughly study the causes entrusted to him, hired or ex officio, to appear for all hearings in the courts of law or at the criminal investigation bodies or other institutions, according to the mandate being entrusted, to manifest conscientiousness and professional probity, to plead with dignity in front of the judges and the parties in the trial, to submit written conclusions or minutes of the hearing whenever the nature or the difficulty of the case so requires or when the court orders to do so. Failure to observe these professional duties is a disciplinary offense.

public judicial assistance in the last 12 months, in what form, for which case and the amount of such aid.

(2) The proof of the applicant's financial situation is mainly made with the following documents:
   a) a certificate issued by the competent authorities or by the employer, as the case may be, showing the professional income of the applicant and other family members subjected, according to the law, to income tax, during the period provided for by the legislation on public judicial assistance, or the sums received as a retirement pension, unemployment or social security benefit, and the other similar amounts, earned over the same period;
   b) the family book and, where appropriate, birth certificates of the children;
   c) the certificate of disabled person of the applicant or of the child, as the case may be;
   d) a statutory statement, showing that the applicant and other family members do not benefit from any additional income;
   e) a statutory statement regarding the patrimonial situation of the applicant and his / her family;
   f) a statutory statement showing that the applicant and / or the other natural or adoptive parent or another person to whom the child has been entrusted for adoption or who has the child in placement or in emergency placement or has been appointed guardian for child, raises and cares the child who is not entrusted or given in placement to any authorized private body or authorized public service or legal person;
   g) evidence issued by the competent authorities on the status of the taxable property of the applicant or, as appropriate, of the other family members;
   h) other documents necessary for establishing the right to legal aid, according to the law.

(3) The application for extrajudicial assistance shall be submitted with the judicial assistance service and shall be settled within 15 working days from the date of registration, by decision of admission or dismissal.

(4) In the case the request for extrajudicial assistance is admitted, the decision on the provision of the legal assistance shall include the following:
   a) the title of the act;
   b) the name of the issuing body;
   c) the legal and factual basis for issuing the decision;
   d) the person to whom the extrajudicial assistance is provided;
   e) the type or form of extrajudicial assistance provided;
   f) the date of issue, the function and the signature of the person who issued the act.

(5) Under the decision to grant extrajudicial assistance, the Dean of the relevant Bar designates a lawyer from the Register of Judicial Assistance of the Bar.

(6) Where possible, the Dean of the Bar may approve the extrajudicial assistance provided by a lawyer chosen by the person to whom the legal assistance is given.

(7) The decision provided in paragraph (3) shall be communicated to the applicant within 5 working days of the date of issue of the decision.

(8) The decision to dismiss the request for extrajudicial assistance may be appealed to the Bar Council within 5 days after its communication.

(9) The appeals against the dismissal decision shall be resolved by the Bar Council, in urgency, in the first session of the bar council.

Article 75
A lawyer who provides legal assistance under this chapter is not entitled to receive any remuneration or other means of reward, from the client or the person being defended, not even to cover the expenses.

SECTION 2: Organization of the judicial assistance activity

Article 76
(1) Within the UNBR, the Department for the Coordination of the Judicial Assistance is organized, as permanent body, coordinated by a UNBR Vice-president. The organizational structure of this department is established by a decision of the Standing Committee of UNBR.
(2) The Department for the Coordination of the Judicial Assistance issues decisions and methodological norms within the limits of the attributions conferred by this law, under the conditions and with the procedure provided by the by-law of the Lawyer's profession.

Article 77

c) proposes or, where appropriate, approves draft Protocols to be concluded with the competent public authorities in order to obtain the necessary financial means for the organization of the judicial assistance services;
d) organizes the National Register of Judicial Assistance/Legal Aid on the basis of the registers drawn up by the bars;
e) organizes and coordinates the payment methodology of the fees for the legal assistance granted;
f) controls the legal assistance granted;
g) elaborates draft normative acts in the field of judicial assistance, which it proposes to the Ministry of Justice for promotion;
h) establishes, together with the Ministry of Justice, the statistics, keeps the statistical records of the judicial assistance system and analyses the information necessary for the proper planning and coordination of the judicial assistance system;
i) collaborates with the Ministry of Justice for the proper functioning and planning of the judicial assistance system, including from a budgetary point of view;
j) popularizes the system of judicial assistance;
k) establishes the forms used by the bars for the organization of the activity of judicial and extrajudicial assistance, according to the law;
l) represents the UNBR in the field of judicial assistance, in the framework of the international collaboration in the field, according to the law or the by-law of the lawyer’s profession.

Article 78
In order to organize the judicial assistance activity, the bars fulfil the following tasks:

a) to organize the judicial assistance services at the level of each bar and at the headquarters of each court;
b) to organize and update the Register of Judicial Assistance /Legal Aid of each Bar on the basis of the lawyers’ applications, approved by the bar council;
c) to designate lawyers registered with the Register of Judicial Assistance /Legal Aid for the provision of legal assistance, taking into account the professional experience and qualification of the lawyer, as well as the nature and complexity of the case, other designations of the lawyer under this law and the degree of his/her workload;
d) to perform the control over the provision of the judicial assistance by lawyers within the bar;
e) to organize and execute programs for popularizing the judicial assistance system;
f) to perform any other duties provided by law or by the Framework Regulation for the organization of judicial assistance services.

Article 79
(1) The Bar shall organize the judicial assistance services at the premises of all courts in the county, in premises dedicated exclusively for the performance of this activity, which shall be provided free of charge by the Ministry of Justice or by the local public administration authorities.
(2) The assistance services provided in paragraph (1) are managed by a qualified lawyer, appointed by the bar council, and are coordinated by a member of the council. The organization, the operation and the attributions of the judicial assistance services are accomplished according to the regulations approved by the Bar Council, based on the Framework Regulation for the organization of the judicial assistance services, approved by the UNBR Council.

Article 80
(1) Each bar shall organize the Register of Judicial Assistance/Legal Aid to which are registered the lawyers that may be appointed to grant judicial assistance and extrajudicial assistance.
(2) The register shall be public, kept in paper and electronic format and published on the website of each bar.
(3) Updating the Register of Judicial Assistance/Legal Aid for the next calendar year shall be carried out by the end of September of the previous calendar year.
(4) In exceptional cases, the Register of Judicial Assistance/Legal Aid may also be amended during the year, according to the procedure for registration.
(5) UNBR organizes the National Register of Judicial Assistance/Legal Aid, consisting of the registers of judicial assistance of all the bars.
(6) The national Register of Judicial Assistance/Legal Aid shall be published on the UNBR website and shall be updated automatically when the register of each bar shall be updated.

Article 81
(1) To register with the Register of Judicial Assistance/Legal Aid, the lawyer shall submit a request to the Bar to which he belongs.
(2) The request referred to in paragraph (1) shall be completed according to the form approved by the Department for the Coordination of the Judicial Assistance of UNBR.
(3) The registration of the lawyer in the Register of Judicial Assistance/Legal Aid shall be made based on the decision of the Bar Council.
(4) The Bar Council may reasonably refuse to register or to remove a lawyer from the register in the following situations:
a) if the applicant lawyer has been subject to a disciplinary sanction;
b) if the lawyer is accused of committing a general law crime;
c) if there has been ascertainment on repeated violation of the provisions of this law or on the poor quality of the legal aid performed.
(5) The deregistration from the register may be ordered for a one-year period and if a consecutive occurrence of three or more deviations from the obligations stipulated by the present law is observed, the deregistration can be ordered for a period of up to 3 years.
(6) The refusal of the bar to register the applicant lawyer in the register, as well as the measure of deregistration of a lawyer from the register may be appealed in accordance with the procedure set out in chapter VI of this law.
(7) The decision to deregister from the register shall be made public by posting it on the Bar's website as well as on the UNBR website.

Article 82
(1) For the legal assistance granted, the appointed lawyer has the right to a fee established by the judicial body, according to the nature and workload of the activity being performed, within the limits of the amounts established by the protocol concluded between UNBR and the Ministry of Justice.
(2) By the act approving the judicial assistance, the judicial body also determines the provisional value of the lawyer’s retainer.
(3) After performing the legal aid activity, the lawyer draws up a written report on the actual legal performance, according to the form approved by the Department for the Coordination of the Judicial Assistance of UNBR. The report is subject to confirmation by the judicial body, which, depending on the workload and the complexity of the activity carried out as well as in relation to the duration, type and particularities of the case, may order the initial fee to be maintained or increased.
(5) If the lawyer receives a disciplinary sanction, according to article 86 paragraph (1), the lawyer shall not receive the retainer for providing the legal assistance for which he has been appointed for that case.

Article 83
(1) Payment of the retainer for the legal assistance granted is done monthly by bank transfer, based on the settlement documents provided in article 82 paragraph (2), endorsed by the bar council.
(2) The amounts necessary for the payment of the retainers or, as appropriate, of the remunerations (fees) for the legal assistance shall be paid, monthly, according to the law, in a separate account opened by each bar. The observance of the destination of such funds thus transferred is also subject to UNBR’s control, under the conditions set out in the by-law of the lawyer’s profession.

Article 84
UNBR and the bar associations work together with the Ministry of Justice, the Superior Council of Magistracy, the courts of law and the prosecutor's offices attached to them in order to carry out in good conditions the judicial assistance provided for in this chapter.

Article 85
(1) The retainers for the judicial assistance granted in any of the forms provided for in this chapter shall be established by the protocol concluded between UNBR, the Ministry of Justice and the Public Ministry.
Payment of the retainers stipulated in paragraph (1) shall be made within 45 days from the date when the statements were submitted by the bars to the competent judicial body. For late payment of the retainers, interest and penalties are calculated and paid at the level provided by the Law no. 207/2015 on the Code for Fiscal Procedure, as subsequently amended and supplemented, in the case of amounts to be repaid or reimbursed from the state budget. Payment of interest / penalty is made upon the request of the bar.

The funds necessary for the payment of the retainers stipulated in paragraph (1) shall be provided from the amounts foreseen in art. 47 of the Government Emergency Ordinance no. 80/2013 regarding the judicial stamp duties, as subsequently amended and supplemented.

For the expenses necessary for the operation of the judicial assistance services of the bars, out of the monthly sums paid for the remuneration of the lawyers, each bar constitutes a fund by withholding 2% of the value of these sums approved and actually paid, according to the rules established by the By-law of the profession lawyer. The withholding of the 2% percentage is made on the actual payment of the fee to the lawyer being entitled to it.

For the judicial assistance granted in any of the forms provided by this chapter, at the request of the local public administration bodies, shall be granted from the funds of these bodies, within the limits of the amounts established by the protocol concluded by each bar with them. In the absence of the such protocol, the limits established by the protocol provided for in article 82 par. (1) shall be applicable.

CHAPTER VI: Disciplinary liability

Article 86

(1) The lawyer shall be liable to disciplinary action for failure to comply with the provisions of this law or the by-law, for failure to comply with binding decisions adopted by the governing bodies of the Bar or the Association of Bars and for any deeds committed in connection with the profession or outside it, that would prejudice the honour and the prestige of the profession, the body of lawyers or of the institution.

(2) The lawyer who manages the legal assistance of each court is obliged to notify in writing to the Bar Council the deeds committed by any lawyer, according to the provisions of para. (1).

(3) The Courts and Public Prosecutor's Offices shall be obliged to submit to the Bar Council any complaint against a lawyer and to notify him of any criminal or trial proceedings against a lawyer.

(4) A serious disciplinary offense constitutes a violation of the provisions of the law and of the Statute of the profession of lawyer expressly providing for such a qualification.
Article 87
(1) The investigation of the offense and the exercise of the disciplinary action shall be the responsibility of the Bar Council.
(2) Investigation of the misconduct and the disciplinary action regarding the deans of the bars and the members of the UNBR Council are within the competence of the UNBR Council. The person being investigated, or disciplinary arraigned does not participate in the decision taking.
3. The members of the Standing Committee who are being investigated may not participate in the debates on the decision to initiate the disciplinary action.
(4) In all cases, the disciplinary action may be exercised within one year from the date when the bar council is informed about the misconduct, but no later than 3 years after the date when the misconduct was committed.
(on 31 March 2017, Article 87, paragraph 4 of Chapter VI as amended by Article I, paragraph 43 of Law 25/2017)

Article 88
(1) Within each bar, a disciplinary commission shall be organized and functioning and shall judge, as first instance and in a three-member panel, the disciplinary misconducts of the lawyers in that bar.
(2) Within UNBR, the Central Discipline Commission is organized and functioning and judges:
   a) as first instance, in a 3 members panel, the misconducts committed by the members of the UNBR Council and the deans of the bars;
   b) in appeal, in 5 members panel, according to the provisions of the profession by-law.
(3) The appeal against the disciplinary decision of the Central Discipline Commission as a court of first instance shall be judged by the UNBR Council constituted as a disciplinary court in its plenary meeting, the person concerned excluded.
(4) Against the judgments pronounced in accordance with paragraph (2) and (3), the interested party may lodge an appeal with the Bucharest Court of Appeal, the Contentious and Fiscal Administrative Division.
(on February 15, 2013, Article 88, paragraph (4) of Chapter VI as amended by Article 24 of Title IV of the Law 76/2012)
(5) The procedure of judging the disciplinary misconducts shall be determined by the by-law of the profession and shall be supplemented with the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code.

Article 89
(1) The disciplinary sanctions are:
a) the reprimand;
b) the warning notice;
c) the fine from 500 lei to 5,000 lei, which will be considered as revenue to the budget of the bar. Payment of the fine will be made within 30 days after the disciplinary decision is final. Non-payment within this term entails the rightful suspension from the exercise of the profession until payment of the sum. The limits of the disciplinary fine are regularly updated by the UNBR Council, depending on the inflation rate;
(on 31 March 2017, Article 89, paragraph (1), point C of Chapter VI as amended by Article I, paragraph 44 of the Law 25/2017)
d) the injunction to practice the profession for a period of one month up to one year;
e) the exclusion from the profession.
(2) During the injunction period, the lawyer cannot provide any legal assistance, cannot use his or her legal capacity and cannot participate in the activity of the bodies of the profession.
(3) The interested person, the dean of the bar and the president of the national association may appeal against the disciplinary decision within 15 days from the communication.

Article 90
(1) In case of obvious and serious misconduct, the disciplinary court may take the measure of suspension of the lawyer from the exercise of the profession until the final hearing of the case.
(2) Against the minutes through which this measure has been taken, an appeal may be filed within 5 days from the communication.
(3) The appeal has a suspensory effect in terms of enforcement and will be resolved urgently.
(on 03-Aug-2016 Chapter VII repealed by Article 139, letter B of Chapter IX of Law 72/2016)

CHAPTER VIII: Exercise in Romania of the profession by the lawyers who have obtained their professional qualification in one of the Member States of the European Union and the European Economic Area

SECTION 1: General provisions

Article 96
1. The provisions of this Chapter shall apply to lawyers who have obtained their professional qualifications in one of the Member States of the European Union and of the European Economic Area who practice their profession within the territory of Romania:
   a) independently or in association;
   b) as employed lawyers in Romania;
   c) through the provision of services.
2. The provisions of this chapter shall also apply to lawyers who have obtained their professional qualifications in the Swiss Confederation, who practice their profession within the territory of Romania in any of the ways provided for in paragraph (1).

Article 97
For the purposes of this chapter:
(a) a lawyer means any person coming from a Member State of the European Union or of the European Economic Area who is authorized to pursue his professional activities under the appropriate professional title obtained in a Member State;
(b) the Member State of origin is the Member State of the European Union or of the European Economic Area where a lawyer has obtained the right to use one of the professional titles referred to in subparagraph a), before practicing the profession of lawyer in Romania;
(c) the professional title in the Member State of origin is the professional title used in the Member State where a lawyer has obtained the right to use this title before practicing the profession of lawyer in Romania;
(d) the group is any entity, with or without legal personality, organized under the law of a Member State, in which lawyers carry out their professional activities together under a common name;
e) the professional title in Romania is the professional title under which a lawyer is registered with the Table of Lawyers in Romania;
f) the competent Romanian authority is the structure within the UNBR, appointed according to the by-law.

Article 98
The lawyers practicing in Romania under the professional title of the Member State of origin may carry out the same professional activities as the lawyers practicing under the professional title obtained in Romania, may provide legal assistance and may represent natural or legal persons before the Romanian courts, with regard to the law of the Member State of origin, the EC law, the international law, as well as Romanian law, in compliance with the procedural rules applicable to the Romanian courts.

Article 99
(1) The lawyers practicing in Romania under the professional title from the Member State of origin shall use the name under which they practice their profession in the Member State of origin, expressed in the official language or in one of the official languages of the Member State of origin.
(2) In addition to the name provided for in paragraph (1), the legal name of the group in the Member State of origin shall be mentioned alongside the legal form of practicing the profession in Romania.
(3) The competent Romanian authority may require a lawyer practicing under the professional title obtained in the home Member State to indicate the professional group to which he or she belongs in the Member State of origin or the judicial authority in which he is admitted practicing the profession, according to the law in the Member State of origin.
(4) The lawyer who obtains the admission to the profession of lawyer in Romania under article 100 or 109 shall be entitled to use the professional title of the Member State of origin, expressed in the official language or in one of the official languages of the Member State of origin, together with the professional title corresponding to the profession of lawyer in Romania.

Article 100
(1) Regardless of the form of practicing the activity on the territory of Romania, the lawyers practicing under the professional title of the home Member State may at any time require to have their diplomas recognized, for the admission to the profession of lawyer and its practice under the professional title in Romania.
(2) In order to have their diplomas recognized in Romania, the applicant, at his choice, will have to either pass an examination to verify his/her knowledges or to perform a 3-year internship in the field of Romanian law.
(3) UNBR shall determine the composition of the evaluation committee, as well as the content and the procedure for the examination or for the traineeship, accordingly.
(4) When submitting the application for having the diploma recognized, in order to determine the content and procedure for the examination or for the traineeship period, the evaluation committee shall verify in advance whether the professional experience acquired by the applicant is capable of covering all or part of the differences between Romanian law and the law from the Member State of origin where the diploma was obtained, with a view to the partial or total exemption from the fulfilment of the conditions provided for in paragraph (2).
(5) The provisions of this article shall be supplemented by the provisions of the framework legislation on the mutual recognition of professional qualifications.

Article 101

(1) The competent Romanian authority and the competent authorities of the Member States of origin shall cooperate with a view to the proper application of the provisions of this law, the information obtained in such collaborations being confidential. Collaboration can also be achieved through the internal market information system, in accordance with the provisions of Government Emergency Ordinance no. 49/2009 on the freedom of establishment of service providers and the freedom to provide services in Romania, approved with amendments and completions by Law no. 68/2010.

(2) The competent authority of the home Member State may formulate observations during the disciplinary proceedings against a lawyer practicing under the professional title of that State.

SECTION 2: Permanent practice of the profession in Romania by lawyers who have obtained the professional qualifications in one of the Member States of the European Union and the European Economic Area

Article 102

(1) Under the terms of this section, any of the lawyers referred to in article 97 letter a) may perform on the territory of Romania the activities stipulated in article 98, with permanent character and under the professional title of the Member State of origin.

(2) The lawyers who permanently practice their activity on Romanian territory may acquire the professional title in Romania either under the conditions provided by article 100, or according to article 109.

Article 103

(1) A lawyer who wishes to practice in Romania under the professional title from the Member State in which he obtained his professional qualification shall be registered with the special table of lawyers held by the Romanian bars, according to this article, to article 13, paragraph (6) and to the by-law of the profession.

(2) The competent Romanian authority shall register the applicant lawyer upon presentation of a certificate attesting his/her registration with the competent authority of the home Member State. The competent Romanian authority shall inform the competent authority of the home Member State about the registration.

(3) The certificate referred to in paragraph (2) must be issued no later than 3 months before filing the application to be registered with the Romanian Table of Lawyers.

(4) When publishing the names of lawyers registered in Romania, the competent Romanian authority shall also publish the names of the lawyers registered under this section.

Art. 104

(1) The lawyers practicing under the professional title from the Member State of origin shall be provided with appropriate representation in the professional associations of lawyers in Romania, in accordance with the provisions of this law and the by-law of the profession; they have at least the right to participate in the election of the governing bodies of these associations.
(2) The lawyers practicing under the professional title from the Member State of origin are obliged either to insure themselves for professional liability under the conditions laid down by the by-law of the profession or to become members of the Lawyers’ Insurance House under the conditions set out in chapter VII.

(3) The lawyers may be exempted from the obligations provided in paragraph (2), if they provide evidence of insurance or other collateral given under the law of the home Member State, to the extent that the insurance or collateral is equivalent in terms of conditions and coverage. If coverage is only partial, lawyers must provide additional insurance to cover matters not covered by the insurance or collateral given under the rules from the Member State of origin.

Article 105
The lawyers registered in Romania under the professional title from the Member State of origin may practice as employees in any of the forms of organization of the profession, as permitted for the lawyers practicing under the professional title obtained in Romania.

Article 106
The lawyers practicing in Romania under the professional title from the Member State of origin are subject to the same rules of professional conduct as set out in this law and in the by-law of the profession as the lawyers practicing under the professional title obtained in Romania for the activities carried out on the territory of the country.

Article 107
(1) The lawyers referred to in this chapter shall be liable to disciplinary action for failure to comply with the present law or by-law, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter VI.
(2) Before commencing the disciplinary proceedings against a lawyer practicing under his home-country professional title, the competent Romanian authority shall inform without delay the competent authority of the Member State of origin, providing any relevant information in question.
(3) The competent Romanian authority shall cooperate with the competent authority of the home Member State throughout the conduct of the disciplinary proceedings.
(4) The permanent or temporary withdrawal by the competent authority of the Member State of origin of the licence to practice the profession shall have the mandatorily effect temporarily or permanently prohibition for the lawyer concerned to practice in Romania under the professional title from the Member State of origin.

Article 108
(1) One or more lawyers from the same group or from the same Member State who practice under the home-country professional title may practice in Romania by setting up a secondary establishment of the respective group, organized in any of the forms of practicing the profession of lawyer provided by the Romanian law.
(2) The profession of lawyer can also be practiced in the associated forms provided by the Romanian law, as follows:
(a) several lawyers from different Member States who practice under their home-country professional titles;
b) one or more lawyers from among those mentioned under letter a) and one or more lawyers from Romania.
(3) The lawyer intending to practice under the professional title of the home Member State shall inform the competent Romanian authority that he is a member of a form of practicing the profession in the Member State of origin and shall provide all relevant details of that group.

Article 109

(1) The lawyers practicing under the professional title of the home Member State who actually and regularly work for at least three years in Romania in the field of Romanian or EC law are admitted to the profession of lawyer in Romania, without having to fulfil the conditions provided for in article 100, in compliance with the provisions of the present law on the exercise of civil and political rights and on cases of malpractice and incompatibility.

(2) Before the competent Romanian authority, the applicants must prove their regular activity in Romania for a period of at least 3 years in the field of Romanian or EC law.

For this purpose:

a) the lawyers must provide all relevant information and documents on the number of cases in which they have provided legal assistance and their nature;

b) the competent Romanian authority can verify the effectiveness and regularity of the work carried out and may ask the lawyer, if necessary, to provide clarifications, in writing or verbally, on the information and documents referred to in letter a).

(3) The lawyers practicing in Romania under the professional title form the Member State of origin may at any time require that the diplomas be recognized, according to the provisions of article 100, in order to obtain admission to the profession of lawyer in Romania and to practice it under the professional title thus obtained.

(4) The Lawyers practicing under the professional title from the Member State of origin who have effectively and regularly pursued a professional activity in Romania for a period of at least 3 years, but for a shorter period of time in the field of Romanian law, may obtain the admission to the profession of lawyer and the right to practice it under the professional title in Romania, without the necessity of fulfilling the conditions provided by article 100, subject to the compliance with the provisions of the present law on the exercise of civil and political rights and on the cases of malpractice and incompatibility, according to the following procedure:

a) the competent Romanian authority considers the actual and regular performance of the activity for at least 3 years, the knowledge and the professional experience acquired in Romania, as well as any participation in lectures and seminars on Romanian law or the deontology of the lawyer profession;

b) the applicant shall make available to the Romanian Bar any relevant information and documentation, especially on the cases in which he has provided legal assistance.

(5) The decision of the Romanian competent authority not to grant automatic registration if no proof has been provided that the requirements set out in paragraph (1) or (4) have been fulfilled shall be reasoned, communicated to the applicant and the bar and subject to the remedies provided by the by-law of the profession.

(6) The effective and regular conduct of the lawyer's activity in Romania and his/her ability to continue is evaluated on the basis of an interview with the evaluation commission provided for in article 100.

(7) The Romanian competent authority may, by a reasoned decision and subject to appeal provided by the by-law of the profession, refuse the applicant lawyer to be granted the professional title of lawyer in Romania, if it is considered that it would undermine public order as a result of some disciplinary misconduct, complaints and incidents of any kind.
(8) UNBR representatives are obliged to keep confidential the information received when examining the application to grant the professional title in Romania.

SECTION 3: The practice of the profession in Romania, through provision of services, by the lawyers coming from the Member States of the European Union and the European Economic Area

Article 110
(1) Under the terms of this section, the lawyers from the Member States of the European Union and the European Economic Area may carry out in Romania professional activities which may be occasionally practiced in the form of the provision of services.
(2) The activity of provision of services provided in paragraph (1) shall be practiced in Romania by representing the legal rights and interests of the individuals and legal persons in court or before public authorities, under the conditions laid down for the lawyers established in that State, without the need to register.
(3) For activities other than those mentioned in paragraph (2), the lawyer respects the conditions and the rules of professional conduct of the home Member State, as well as the Romanian legislation on the profession, in particular regarding incompatibilities, professional secrecy, relations between lawyers, prohibition for the same lawyer to represent two parties having opposing interests, as well as advertising. A lawyer not established in Romania is bound to comply with these rules only to the extent that their observance is objectively justified in order to ensure the proper practice of the lawyer's activities, the dignity of the profession and compliance with the rules on incompatibility.

Article 111
(1) The competent Romanian authority requires the lawyer providing services to prove his / her legal capacity.
(2) In case of non-compliance with the obligations stipulated in article 110, the competent Romanian authority shall determine through by-law the consequences of this non-compliance.
(3) In verifying the case of non-observance of the obligations stipulated in article 110, the competent Romanian authority may request any useful professional information on the person providing the services.
(4) The competent Romanian authority shall inform the competent authority of the home Member State of any decision taken. The communications provided for in this paragraph shall be confidential.

CHAPTER IX: Transitional and Final Provisions

Article 112
This law will be implemented as follows:
a) the current governing bodies of the Romanian Bar Association will continue to carry out their duties, according to the law and the by-law of the profession, as the governing bodies of UNBR, throughout the mandate for which they were elected;
b) The UNBR Council shall elaborate the draft by-law of the profession and shall adopt it within 90 days from the date of entry into force of this law. The by-law of the profession will be published in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part I;
c) The new forms of association for the practice the profession of lawyer will be organized and will only function after the entry into force of the new by-law of the profession.

Article 113

(1) At the date of entry into force of this Law, the natural or legal persons who have been authorized under other legislation or have been cleared by court order to carry out consultancy, representation or legal assistance in any area shall lawfully cease their activity. The continuation of such activities constitutes an offense and is punishable under the criminal law.

(2) Also, on the date of entry into force of this law, any legal, administrative or judicial acts by which activities of consultancy, representation and legal assistance have been recognized or approved, contrary to the provisions of this law, lawfully cease.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (1) and (2) shall not apply to the profession of legal advisor, which shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of Law no. 514/2003 on the organization and the practice of the legal advisor profession, with further additions.

(4) The bar councils and the deans have the obligation and the authorization to follow the fulfilment of the provisions of paragraph (1) and (2) and to take legal action in this respect.

Article 114

At the date of entry into force of this law, the name of the Romanian Bar Association is replaced by the name of the National Association of the Romanian Bars in all normative acts.
